Exhibiting Artwork

All artwork will be reviewed for exhibition consideration. The Prince William Public Libraries (Library) endeavors to present a broad spectrum of opinions and viewpoints, however, exhibition does not imply endorsement by the Library or the Library Board of Trustees. The Library reserves the right to deny use of the space. The Library's decision on what will be displayed in its exhibit spaces will be final.

The artist is responsible for delivery of all selected artwork as well as pick up of artwork when the exhibit is over. The branch will decide placement of the intended artwork. Artists may list sale prices for displayed artwork, with any sales taking place outside of library property. Artists agree to indemnify and hold harmless Prince William County Government from any and all damage to artwork displayed in library spaces. The Library may include information about the current exhibit on the library's website, posters, and various other media outlets where the library advertises. Any outside advertising is the responsibility of the artist.
