

Books 801-900

801	802	803	804	805	806	807	808	809	810
811	812	813	814	815	816	817	818	819	820
821	822	823	824	825	826	827	828	829	830
831	832	833	834	835	836	837	838	839	840
841	842	843	844	845	846	847	848	849	850
851	852	853	854	855	856	857	858	859	860
861	862	863	864	865	866	867	868	869	870
871	872	873	874	875	876	877	878	879	880
881	882	883	884	885	886	887	888	889	890
891	892	893	894	895	896	897	898	899	900

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten

stamp when completed

Words Everywhere

How can you share new words with your child?

Learn sign language: Teaching your baby simple signs like "milk" or "more" can help develop vocabulary even before they talk.

Name body parts: It's a great game to play when taking a bath or changing clothes.

Put on a puppet show: Telling a story with puppets or stuffed animals gives you the opportunity to share new words.

My Favorite Books
