CHAPTER 17

Conflict of Interest:

No person who is an employee, agent, consultant, officer, or elected or appointed official of Prince William County, Manassas City or Manassas Park who exercises or has exercised any function or responsibilities with respect to assisted rehabilitation activities of the Housing Choice Voucher Program who is in a position to participate in a decision-making process or gain inside information with regard to such activities, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from the activity, or have an interest in any contract, subcontract or agreement with respect thereto, or the proceeds hereunder, either for themselves, their immediate family, or with who they have business ties, during their tenure or for one (1) year thereafter.

Employee Conflict of Interest:

OHCD will always strive to maintain the highest ethical standards in all policies, procedures and programs and will take every reasonable action to avoid any conflicts of interest when administering all programs. The Housing Choice Voucher Program will be administered without preference or favoritism on the part of any of OHCD Program employees. Each employee must comply with all of the policies and procedures of the HCV Program, maintain the confidentiality of information required in the performance of his or her duties as it relates to administration of the program and not use his or her position or knowledge acquired in carrying out job responsibilities and duties for personal gain or as a representative of other interests, public or private.

It is not possible to develop a detailed set of rules that cover all circumstances. There is no substitute for good judgment. The following considerations will, however, serve as a guide to the types of activity by an OHCD HCV employee administering a federally funded program that might constitute a possible conflict of interest when dealing with family and administration of the policies and procedures set forth for the HCV Program.

Covered Individuals For the purposes under this Policy, “family or family member” is defined as any member of the employee’s family (spouse, parent, sibling, child, stepchild, grandparent, grandchild, great-grandchild, in-law, or domestic partner).

Covered Transactions This Policy covers any transactions that could constitute a conflict of interest or a duality of interest, both of which are described below.

Actions Considered a Conflict of Interest In general terms, a conflict of interest may occur if an employee’s “family or family member” as defined above applies for assistance through the HCV Program and the employee(s) administering the HCV Program: (i) influences, appears to influence or has the potential to influence; or provides any assistance in the processing of any documentations used to make an eligibility determination to include income; property; legal documentation and release of federal funding.

All HCV Applications received from an employee’s “family or family member” as defined above must be administered by alternative OHCD HCV employee and the employee whose “family or family member” that has applied for assistance through the HCV program will not be involved in the administration; have direct access to; or funding of the application for assistance.

In addition, an employee is considered to have a potential conflict of interest when:

CHAPTER 17

An employee or his or her family member has a financial interest (examples may include employment through a representative or agent for any office in or deriving any income from any entity doing or seeking to do business; to include but not limited to affiliates in the real estate market) i.e., Realtors; Management Companies, and/or Landlords that conflicts with the interest of OHCD or potential HCV Applicants in any manner.

Program staff employees are required to comply with all of the conflict-of-interest requirements outlined within the Prince William County Employee Personnel Policy in addition to this Program Conflict of Interest Policy.

In addition, any OHCD employee may not have any direct or indirect interest in the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) contract or in any benefits or payments under the contract (including the interest of an immediate family member of staff) while that person is an employee in the Office of Housing and Community Development or for one year thereafter. “Immediate family member” means the spouse, parent (including a stepparent), child (including a stepchild), grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother (including a stepsister or stepbrother) of a Section 8 staff member.

Staff will comply with the conflict-of-interest requirements of the Housing Choice Voucher Program at 24 CFR 983.161.

Disciplinary action for infractions of this Code of Conduct for Subsidized Housing Programs Administered by Fairfax County Department of Housing and Community Development will be in accordance with Chapter 16 of the Fairfax County Personnel Regulations governing Conduct and Discipline. The entity must not be connected financially (except regarding compensation for services performed for PHA-owned units) or in any other manner that could result in the PHA improperly influencing the entity.

Chapter 17

Individual with handicaps. See person with disabilities.

Upon PHA implementation of HOTMA 102/104: Inflationary index. An index based on the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W) used to make annual adjustments to the deduction for elderly disabled families, the cap for imputing returns on assets, the restriction on net family assets, the amount of net assets the PHA may determine based on self-certification by the family, and the dependent deduction.

Local preference. A preference used by the PHA to select among applicant families.

In the case of a disposition as part of a separation or divorce settlement, the disposition will not be considered to be for less than fair market value if the applicant or tenant receives consideration not measurable in dollar terms. Negative equity in real property or other investments does not prohibit the owner from selling the property or other investments, so negative equity alone would not justify excluding the property or other investments from family assets.

Noncitizen. A person who is neither a citizen nor national of the United States.

This is the income limit for the housing choice voucher program.
