Arrests

Sexual Assault Investigation – On March 27, detectives concluded an investigation into a series of sexual assaults that were reported to have occurred at residences located in the Woodbridge (22191) area of Prince William County spanning approximately 11 years between 2012 and 2023. The investigation revealed two female victims, who were both young children when the assaults began, were sexually abused by three known parties, identified as the accused, on multiple occasions during that timeframe. The allegations were recently reported to the police in January 2025 launching the investigation. Over the course of two months, the suspects were identified and located. Following the investigation, all three men, identified on the next page, were arrested between March 20-27.
